

Sayyed Mohsen Fatemi, Ph.D.

Certified Hypnotherapist

Sayyed Mohsen Fatemi, Ph.D. completed his postdoctoral studies in the department of psychology at Harvard University where he has also served as a Teaching Fellow, an Associate, and a Fellow. His publications appear in Springer, Wiley, Templeton Press, Routledge, Cambridge University Press, Oxford University Press, Lexington publication, Roman & Littlefield, Palgrave McMillan, American Psychiatric Association, and Journals such as APA's Journal of Theoretical and Philosophical Psychology and International Journal of Clinical and Experimental Hypnosis.

In addition to teaching at Harvard, he has also taught for the department of psychology at the University of British Columbia, Western Washington University, the University of Massachusetts in Boston, University of Toronto, York University, Endicott College, and Boston Graduate School of Psychoanalysis.

Sayyed Mohsen Fatemi, Ph.D. is also an adjunct faculty member in the Graduate Program in Psychology in the Department of Psychology at York University, Canada. He exclusively uses hypnotherapy for his clients. He integrates Langerian mindfulness with hypnotherapy in a wide variety of contexts.

He has supervised both master and doctoral students for their research projects and dissertations. He has served as a keynote speaker of several international conferences and run workshops and seminars across the USA, Canada and overseas.

Fatemi is the recipient of the Ellen Langer International Mindfulness Award and is an active member of the APA with numerous presentations at APA annual meetings.
