

Wei (Gabriel) Qi is a 5th-year Chinese international student and PhD candidate in the clinical psychology program at Fuller Graduate School of Psychology. His past research experience has been on Chinese international students and scale development, especially in indigenous and/or cultural psychology perspectives. He is pursuing a major area of study in clinical neuropsychology, and his current research interests also include neuropsychological tool development (esp. in Chinese languages and in indigenous perspectives), dementia, and rehabilitation psychology.

Contact

Qi, Wei (Gabriel)

School of Psychology,

Fuller Theological Seminary,

180 N. Oakland Avenue,

Pasadena, CA 91101

Email address: gabrielqi@fuller.edu