

Catching Memory: Two Languages / One Community with Chun Yu and Michael Warr

Saturday, February 15, 2-4 PM

at the Chinese Cultural Center of San Francisco. Free public event with open mic.

From: Chun Yu

Dear Friends,

Please join me and poet Michael Warr on Saturday, February 15, at 2-4 PM (rescheduled from September 28, 2019, due to my family emergency) for our exciting free public event at the San Francisco Chinese Cultural Center, co-sponsored by MoAD Museum.

If you feel inspired, please bring a poem or story of your own based on your family experience to share in English, Chinese, or both.

Catching Memory: Two Languages / One Community

Poetry Reading + Community Open Mic

Saturday, February 15th

2:00 – 4:00 PM

Location: Chinese Culture Center

750 Kearny Street, 3rd Floor

San Francisco, CA 94108

Come and hear award-winning writers Michael Warr and Chun Yu recite their poems in Chinese and English, and share images related to their readings!

Following the featured reading, the audience will have an opportunity to share their poems and stories based on their family experience. Each open mic reader will have three minutes.

Chinese Culture Center of San Francisco

Event Description:

Award-winning writers Michael Warr and Chun Yu will recite their poems in Chinese and English and share related images. They will share works written as part of their Two Languages / One Community Workshop Series in which they engage African American and Chinese American participants in a rare cultural exchange based on dialogue, storytelling, and writing. Following the featured reading, the audience will have an opportunity to share their poems and stories based on their family experience. Each open mic reader will have three minutes.

For more information and RVSP:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/catching-memory-two-languages-one-community-poetry-reading-tickets-90020621101>

If interested, please also visit my website and sign up on my email list for future events:

Events Schedule – ChunYu

Also, check out our Catching Memory: Two Languages/One Community Project which brings Chinese and African American communities together in writing poetry and stories:

<https://chunyu.org/projects-collaborations/>

Hope to see you there and hear your poems and stories!

Chun Yu, Ph.D.

www.chunyu.org