

Triple-bordered sessions indicate collaborative programming co-sponsored by division 24

Broken-bordered sessions indicate Social Events sponsored and co-sponsored by division 24

Zig-zag-bordered sessions indicate sessions offering CE credits approved by the APA Office of Continuing Education

Thursday, August 3

9:00 – 10:50 a.m.

Convention Center Room 156

Crisis of American Psychology in a Global Village—Can Indigenous Psychology Help?, Louise K.W. Sundararajan, Chair

Co-Listing Divisions: 7, 8, 9, 17, 26, 27, 31, 39, 52, APAGS

Islam-Based Psychology and Its Implications for American Psychology, Sayyed Mohsen Fatemi

Contributions of Indigenous Psychologies to Methodological Pluralism in American Psychology, Frederick J. Wertz

Wanted: Indigenous Psychologists to Run the Globalization Detox Clinic, Louise K.W. Sundararajan

Psychology and the Analysis of Society: Critical and Indigenous Thought, Thomas Teo

11:00 – 11:50 a.m.

Convention Center Room 154A

Deontic Effects of Competing Demands in Psychology With Regard to Migration and Religious Issues, Olga Louchakova-Schwartz, Chair

Co-Listing Divisions: 7, 8, 36, 52

Central American Refugee Crisis: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Refugee Lived Experience, Mary Beth Morrissey

"The Misadventures of Ulises": Film and Psychological Commentary, Ulises Charles Rodriguez

Psychology and Competing Religious Demands, Olga Louchakova-Schwartz

2:00 – 2:50 p.m.

Marriott Marquis, DC Hotel
Woodley Park Room

Division 24 Executive Committee Meeting

3:00 – 4:30 p.m.

Division 24 Hospitality Suite

Theoretical Psychology in a New World Order: Conversation Hour

Join a timely discussion on the implications of the most recent US election for theoretical psychological research and practice.

5:00 – 6:50 p.m.

Marriott Marquis Washington, DC
Hotel Liberty Salon P

Divisions 24 and 26 Social Hour

Co-sponsored with Division 26

Friday, August 4

8:00 – 9:50 a.m.

Convention Center
Room 208

Psychology in the Social Imagery of Neoliberalism Wade E. Pickren, Chair

This session is co-sponsored with Division 26 (History)

Neoliberalism and IQ: Naturalizing Economic and Racial Inequality, Andrew S. Winston

Gendering the Neoliberal Subject, Alexandra Rutherford

Neoliberalism and the Ethics of Surveillance: Beware Screening and Integrated Behavioral Health Care, Lisa Cosgrove

Neoliberal Selves: Corporate Cross-Cultural Psychology and Identity in Urban India, Sunil Bhatia

Neoliberalism, Subjectivity, and the End of Agency, Thomas Teo

Discussant, Michael E. Arfken

10:00 – 10:50 a.m.

Convention Center
Room 302

The Neoliberal University: Understanding the Changing Nature of Graduate Education, Jennifer A. Moore, Chair

Co-Listing Divisions: 2, 7, 15, 26, 27, 39, APA Ethics Committee, APAGS

Jeritt R. Tucker, Rashelle V.H. Litchmore, Michelle Krieger, Jacklynn Fitzgerald, Jennifer A. Moore

Speakers critically evaluate the 'neoliberalization' of higher education and its relevance to psychology graduate programs, drawing on multiple disciplines, career stages, & standpoints of multiple social identities, e.g., racial background, age.

11:00 – 11:50 a.m.

Convention Center
West Overlook Room

Psychological Theory for Changing Sociopolitical Conditions

Co-Listing Divisions: 7, 8, 9, 14, 23, 26, 27, 31, 39, 48, 52, APAGS

Identity, Ideology and Psychological Theory, Michael E. Arfken

The Streaming Self: Liberal Subjectivity, Technology and Lost Facticity, David Goodman and Abigail Collins

Deliberative Public Opinion: Development of a Social Construct, Kieran O'Doherty

Suffering in the Age of the Anthropocene: Ethics, Ecology and Global Justice, Mary B. Morrissey

12:00 – 1:30 p.m.

Division 24 Hospitality Suite

Critical Perspectives on Graduate Studies Lunch

Graduate students and early career psychologists will lead a Q&A style discussion with more senior psychologists on the challenges of the increasingly precarious academic context. Food provided based on RSVP.

Friday, August 4 (continued)

1:45 – 2:45 p.m.

Division 24 Hospitality Suite

Meeting of the Div 24 Special Interest Group on Social Issues

Meeting designated for Div 24 members interested in contributing to a special interest group on social issues.

3:00 – 3:50 p.m.

Convention Center
Halls D and E

Division 24 Poster Session

Conventional Assumptions of Acculturation's Cultural Crossings,
Michael Zhang and Paul Rhodes

Investigating Psychosocial Adaptation to Illness and Disability From Virtue Perspective, Jeong Han Kim, Rene Gonzalez, and Dong Hun Lee

Does APA's Charitable Status Affect the Psychology of Individuals? The Sociology of Psychology, Erin Thrift

Reaching Into the Good Book: A Method of Reducing Stigma of Psychological Disorders With Religion, Maxine L. Alonso and Thomson J.
Ling

The Influence of Emotional Functioning on the Cognitive Skills of Rationality, James E. Jones

Mapping the Formative Aspects of Education, Joseph Ostenson and Rebecca Robb

Critical Reflection in Theory and Practice: Psychology Transformed
Through Hermeneutics of Suspicion, Courtenay Crouch

4:00 – 4:50 p.m.

Division 24 Hospitality Suite

Division 24 Poster Discussion Hour

Poster presenters from the divisional poster session will give short presentations and discuss their work.

5:00 – 5:50 p.m.

Convention Center West Overlook
Room

Diverse Voices, Rich Evidence---Critical Approaches to the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning, Bradford J. Wiggins, Chair

Co-listing Divisions: 2, 5, 7, 8, 9, 14, 15, 26, 27, 32, 52, APAGS

Evidence in Context: A Case-for-Case-Oriented Research in the Teaching and Learning of Psychology, Joshua W. Clegg and Bradford J.
Wiggins

Improving the Craft of Psychology Teaching: A Design-Oriented
Approach, Stephen C. Yanchar

Connecting Students to Lived Experience, Michelle M. Merwin and
Joseph Ostenson

Psychology and Identity: Why Black Lives Should Matter to the Asian Diaspora, Sunil Bhatia

Friday, August 4 (continued)

6:15 – 6:45 p.m.

Division 24 Hospitality Suite

Q&A with JTPP Editors

The editor and associate editors of the Journal of Theoretical and Philosophical Psychology answer questions about publishing in the journal, discuss ideas for special issues, etc.

6:45 – 8:00 p.m.

Division 24 Hospitality Suite

JTPP Reception

Food and conversation with the JTPP editorial team.

Saturday, August 5

8:00 – 9:50 a.m.

Convention Center
Room 152A

Kinds of Kinds in Psychology---Ontology, Epistemology, Persons, Introspection and Ethics, Barbara S. Held, Chair

Co-Listing Divisions: 7, 8, 52

Drilling Down Into the Ontology of Human Kinds: How Far Can You Go?, Fiona J. Hibberd

How Updated Natural-Kind Theory Challenges the Human-Kind/Natural-Kind Distinction, Barbara S. Held

What Kind of a Kind Is a Person?, Lisa M. Osbeck

Kinds of Introspection: Conceptual Analysis of the Psychological Tradition in 19th-Century Germany, Saulo F. Araujo

Kinds of Ethics and Ethical Kinds: Disentangling Discordant and Related Meanings and/or Realities, Alan C. Tjeltveit

10:00 – 11:50 a.m.

Convention Center
Room 149A

Can Psychology Survive the Age of Neuroscience?, Tannahill Glen and Mark Freeman, Co-Chairs

Co-Listing Divisions: 3, 7, 12, 20, 39, 40, 47, APAGS

Neuroscience Can Advance Person-Level Explanation in Psychology: Lessons From Biophilosophy of Race, Barbara S. Held

Neuropsychology and Neuroscience: The Hart and the Hunter, a Cautionary Tale, Tannahill Glen

Neuropsychological Subjects: Experiences of Self in a Neuroscientific Era, Suzanne R. Kirschner

Rehabilitation Psychology and Neuroscience: A False Dichotomy?, Sarah A. Raskin

Discussant, Mark Freeman

12:00 – 12:50 p.m.

Division 24 Hospitality
Suite

Conversation Hour with Division 26 (History)

Presentation by Jeremy Burman and Jonna Brenninkmeijer: "Europe's New "Reflecting on Psychology" (History and Theory) Graduate Program

Saturday August 5 (continued)

1:00 – 2:30 p.m.

Division 24 Hospitality Suite

Update from Division 24's Ethics in Psychology Task Force

Dan Aalbers and Alan Tjeltveit

3:00 – 3:50 p.m.

Convention Center Room 101

Division 24 Business Meeting

Distribution of awards, updates, and new initiatives—join Division 24 in the conversation!

4:00 – 4:50 p.m.

Convention Center Room 101

Presidential Address, Thomas Teo

Laying the foundations for the psychological humanities: What do we know about subjectivity?

5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Marriott Marquis Washington, DC Hotel/Union Station Room

FDC Social (Divisions 1, 24, 26, 32, & 39)

Join members of the Foundational Divisions Coalition to share ideas and build relationships across divisionary lines! Food will be served and bar will be open to all who are interested.

Sunday, August 6

8:00 – 8:50 a.m.

Division 24 Hospitality Suite

Meeting of the Division 24 Special Interest Group on Clinical Issues

All Div 24 members interested in contributing to a special interest group on social issues.

9:00 – 9:50 a.m.

Convention Center Room 204C

Rethinking Psychological Theory---Personality, Empathy, and Enactivism

Co-Listing Divisions: 7, 8, 14, 29, 39, 48

An Enactive Theory of Empathy and Shared Normativity, Garri Hovhannisyan

Enactive, Integrative Personality and the Temperament-Character-Society Matrix, Suraj Sood

The Imago Dei: A Lay Psychological Construct of the Whole Person, Eric L. Johnson

10:00 – 11:50 a.m.

Convention Center Room 149B

Theorizing Psychotherapy---Taking Practical Activity As the Cornerstone, Michael A. Westerman, Chair

This session is co-sponsored with Division 29 (Psychotherapy)

Psychotherapy and Hermeneutic Practice, Brent D. Slife and Stephen C. Yanchar

Life Positioning Analysis: A Participatory Theory and Method for Psychobiography and Psychotherapy, Jack Martin

The Participatory Perspective As a Guide for Psychotherapy, Michael A. Westerman
