

[DIV24] Dr. Dionne Powell Speaks on Race and Psychoanalysis

From: Kareen Malone

Dear Colleagues,

Atlanta Psychoanalytic Society is extremely pleased to present Dr. Dionne Powell who will be addressing race in our clinical practice and racism in its social and subjective effects. The title of her talk is Good Trouble: How psychoanalysts can get out of their own way when it comes to race. This topic could not be timelier or more important. Registration link for this event is live in the attached poster or can be found in this message (below):

https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJEuceqrrj0jHdetRowGRz04d\_Z-GeXnvPAi

Check out the Flyer & please join us by zoom live-stream for this free event,

The Atlanta Psychoanalytic Society Program Committee

Kareen Ror Malone, Ph.D. L.P.C.
Professor- Emerita Psychology
Founding Director of Doctoral Program
University of West Georgia
AF Member Après Coup,
New York City, USA
Adjunct Faculty- Emory University Psychoanalytic Institute
Program Co-Chair- Atlanta Psychoanalytic Society
Current phone: 404 728 9640
kmalone@westga.edu