

Invitation to the Third Southeast Asian Indigenous Psychology (SEAIP-2023) Conference

Dear scholars,

We are pleased to extend an invitation for you to attend the third Southeast Asian Indigenous Psychology conference (SEAIP-2023), which will be taking place at Universitas Hasanuddin, Makassar, Indonesia and Online via Zoom Cloud Meeting on November 25th - 26th, 2023.

The SEAIP-2023 conference is hosted by Universitas Hasanuddin Makassar, Indonesia, in collaboration with Culture and Health Lab based in Monash University Malaysia together with a team of phenomenal scholars pioneering and concerning the development of indigenous psychology in the Southeast Asia region.

This event is a continuation of our efforts to empower young IP scholars in the Southeast Asia region by building a community in which collaborative efforts and multidisciplinary research on culturally relevant issues may be fostered and supported. As such, our meeting plan includes plenty of opportunities for dialogue/networking/collaboration, including an open-session with Keynote speaker Professor Professor Pat Dudgeon and two plenary speakers Dr. Robert Lemelson and Dr. Ryan Chua. There will be a half day closed meeting, with a max. of 60 registrants in 3 different clusters, and paper presentation on the second day. More details can be found on our public SEAIP-2023 Website and flyers attached to this email.

Registration is FREE and only open till 30th September 2023 for Abstracts Submission and Cluster Discussion/Networking. However, you may still register as an attendee on Keynote and Plenary Session until 31st October 2023. Please register through the link <https://www.seaip2023.com/register> and select your type of participation.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you need more details or have any questions.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Syurawasti Muhiddin
