

researching indigenous social change alternatives
 different ways of knowing creativity

The Department of Psychology, Covenant University, hosts a workshop on alternative research paradigms and indigenous knowledge promotion FEBRUARY 14 - 17 2011

Drawing from a post-epistemological ethos and critique of modernist assumptions about knowledge, the Department of Psychology, Covenant University, is organizing a Workshop on Alternative Research Paradigms and Indigenous Knowledge Promotion (WARP 2011) to investigate, promote, and celebrate multiple knowledge paradigms. Participants will contribute to facilitated discourse about non-mainstream research tools, learn other kinds of research pathways, and explore alternative practices and goals that bring rewarding results that are significant to our local needs. WARP 2011, a cross-disciplinary research forum, is open to professionals, academics and research students in the Social Sciences and other fields.

Professor Jack Whitehead
UK

Professor Jean McNiff
UK

Professor Akin Odeunmi
U.S.A.

Professor Augustine Nwoye
Tanzania

Venue
Registration Fee

Africa Development Centre, Covenant University, Ota, Ogun State, Nigeria

- Professionals and Academics N7500
- Covenant University Faculty N3500
- Students N2500
- Foreign Delegates / Students $100/$50

FEBRUARY 14-17 2011

Contact

Dr. O. Adekeye (Chairperson, WARP 2011 Committee) (234) 080 3595 6630
 jikeye@yahoo.com
 Mr. A. Akomolafe (Secretary, WARP 2011 Committee) (234) 070 3333 0750
 bakomolafe@yahoo.com

Chief Host:
 Professor Aize Obayan
 Vice Chancellor,
 Covenant University,
 Ota, Ogun State,
 Nigeria

Host:
 Professor Kayode Soremekun
 Dean,
 College of Development Studies,
 Covenant University,
 Ota, Ogun State, Nigeria

For more information, please visit: www.covenantuniversity.edu.ng