From: Frederick D Abraham <frederick.d.abraham@gmail.com>

Our next SNOWFLAKE2021 will be on December 9. Jerry will be enthralling us with what I believe will take us to the core of the nature of knowledge and meaning. He has been busy raising organic mathematics, so his title is

Organic Mathematics: From Affect to Anatomy to Atoms — And back Again

He says that “The title was motivated by a text from Issac Newton on the meanings of analysis and synthesis.”. He will supply an introductory short text to clarify shortly. Meanwhile this piqued my curiosity to see what I could and did find, which was an abstract on a book in the Cambridge Companion series on Newton, and found the organic seeds go back to Euclid’s Elements and Aristotle’s Organon. We have all been eating ancient grains lately, so why stop. For the latest produce, we await Jerry’s enlightenment. I’ve been look forward to this update on his project, and am pleased to see it take the organic expansion.
