Dear Friends,

I'll be opening the Watershed Environmental Poetry Festival with collaborator and cofounder of the Two Languages/One Community 兩種語言/一個社群 program Michael Warr this Saturday 10/14 (12 noon to 4:30 pm), at Martin Luther King, Jr. Civic Center Park • Berkeley (right next to the Berkeley Farmer's Market). It's a free public event. We have an amazing lineup of poets. Robert Hass, our former national poet laureate will read and introduce surprise guests.

Also before the festival, there's the Strawberry Creek Walk from 10 am to noon. Highly recommended as well.

Hope to see you there!
